

Scottish Music Workshops for Dance

For experienced musicians and teachers

November 28 & 29th, 2009

El Segundo Woman's Club

524 Standard Street at Mariposa Avenue

El Segundo, CA

Registration 9:00 am – Cost $20.00 for 2 days

Classes 10:00 am to 2:30 pm Saturday

10 am to noon Sunday

❖ The Music Workshop is geared to musicians who are proficient with their instruments and wish to learn to play Scottish dance style. (No beginners, please.)

There will be two separate classrooms for musicians:

(a) For keyboard/accordion/guitar and bass players

(b) For fiddlers

Musicians must bring their own instruments and accessories

Sheet music will be provided upon receipt of registration form (prior to the Workshop)

❖ A dance class for improving individuals' Scottish Country Dancer technique, style and presentation of dance. This class is open only to teachers, candidate teachers and performers. This group will be invited to dance with the musicians on Sunday morning in a combined class.

❖ Instructors for this Workshop are:

ANDREW IMBRIE – A very popular and experienced pianist in playing Scottish dance music with various groups. He has taught many workshops around the country.

SUSAN WORLAND – A much respected violinist and performer of traditional Scottish dance and folk music who has played with many Scottish bands.

SIMON SCOTT – Simon is well-known to dancers in Vancouver where he has danced, taught, and demonstrated since the mid sixties. Simon has led workshops in many parts of the world. He will share his passion for dance and will inspire everyone to reach for their own highest standard of performance.
